

RIVER IS DRAGGED FOR BULLOCK

Vain Search for Body of Man Believed to Have Committed Suicide.

MIND FAILS IN SICKNESS

RELATIVES WILL CONTINUE TO HUNT FOR HIM.

The Jordan river was dredged and dynamited by the police yesterday for nearly a mile below the north Jordan bridge to recover the body of James M. Bullock, jr., 1870 Eleventh East street, who, it is believed, committed suicide by drowning himself. For four hours the work was carried on, but all efforts were in vain. The river's bottom was dredged and raked from one side to the other with drag hooks attached to long ropes.

Boats were secured from the Utah Light & Power company's sub-station at the river, and the middle of the stream was stirred up with blasts of dynamite. Sergeant John J. Roberts, Detectives L. Shuman and Howard Wilson took charge of the work. About twenty others, including the father and three brothers of the missing man, aided the officers.

Men were stationed all along the river bank to watch for the appearance of a body if it came to the top after the blasts were set off. Nothing resulted from the search and many of the missing man's relatives have hope of yet finding him alive.

Finding Hat Causes Search.

The search was made on account of the finding of a hat near the Jordan river, which is supposed to have belonged to Bullock. It had his name on the brim but the hat could not be identified by either his brothers or father. This is the only evidence that the police have of Bullock having been in that neighborhood.

The officers received a call to Jordan bridge Tuesday afternoon, stating that a man was lying on the bridge and that he said he was sick. Detective Shannon went down to the bridge from his home and bought the man to the police station. He gave the name of Bullock, and again said he was sick. He was cared for Tuesday night at the police station.

Bullock said that he had relatives in Salt Lake and asked to be released Wednesday morning. No charge was preferred against him and he was released accordingly. Shortly after his release information was received from Bullock's father that he had wandered away from home and was evidently not in his right mind. His son, the elder Bullock said, was suffering from an attack of rheumatism which he believed had affected his mind.

Relatives Make Vain Search.

When the police notified Bullock that his son had been taken in chains Tuesday and released at his request on Wednesday, a search was made for him about the city. Albert, John M. and Joseph M. Bullock, brothers of the missing man, took up the search but were unable to locate him.

They received word on Thursday that a man had been seen going up City creek. A search was made up the canyon, over into Parley's canyon and Emigration canyon, but he could not be found. Michael Granger reported to the police Friday that he had picked up a hat near the Jordan river not far from his home, which bore the name of "J. Bullock." Granger brought the hat to the police station. The father

AMULET PSORIASIS 35 YEARS

Terrible Scaly Humor in Patches All Over the Body—Skin Cracked and Bleeding—Itching Unbearable—Cured by Cuticura in Thirty Days at Cost of $4.75.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

"I was afflicted with psoriasis for thirty-five years. It was in patches all over my body. I used three boxes of Soap, six boxes of Cuticura Ointment, and two bottles of Cuticura Resolvent. I bathed with the Soap, applied the Ointment once a day, and took the Resolvent as directed. In thirty days I was completely cured, and I think permanently, as it was about five years ago."

"The psoriasis first made its appearance as a red spot, generally forming a circle, leaving in the center a spot about the size of a silver dollar of sound flesh. In a short time the red spot would form again in twenty-four hours. It was worse on my arms and limbs, although it was in spots all over my body, also on my scalp. If I let the scales remain too long without removing by bath or otherwise, the skin would crack and bleed. I suffered intense itching, worse at nights after getting warm in bed, or blood warm by exercise, when it would be almost unbearable."

"To sum it all up, I would not go through such another ordeal of affliction for thirty-five years for the cure of Cuticura. (Signed) W. A. Chidester, Hutchinson, Kan., April 20, 1905."

Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills, are sold throughout the world. Putnam & Co., Sole Proprietors, Boston and New York. "How to Cure Psoriasis." Boston.

YOUNG GLADYS REID IS LOST SOMEWHERE BETWEEN SAN FRANCISCO AND SALT LAKE

Gladys Reid, the 14-year-old daughter of Mrs. Archibald P. Reid of Salt Lake, lost somewhere between San Francisco and Salt Lake. The girl was attending school at the Irvington institute at San Francisco. The day following the earthquake she wired her mother, whom she supposed to be at Springfield, as follows:

"Am safe and will come as soon as possible."

This telegram was dated at Benary, Cal., a town that does not exist. By the time the telegram had been forwarded to Mrs. Reid from Springfield to Salt Lake it was impossible to check up and get the correct name of the town.

As soon as she received the telegram Mrs. Reid went to Ogden, and for nearly two days she waited in the Ogden union depot hoping that each succeeding train would bring the missing girl. She hesitated to start for San Francisco lest she should pass her child on the way. Mrs. Reid is at a loss what to do, but no serious fears are entertained for the missing girl's safety.

WANTS THE NATION TO AID

Suggestion Made That Government Lend $100,000,000 to San Francisco Men.

An easterner who registered at the Knutsford yesterday from Los Angeles wrote a letter to Senator Foraker of Ohio suggesting that the United States government make a loan of $100,000,000 to the property holders of San Francisco on easy terms, charging probably no more than 2 per cent on the money advanced.

The writer is a personal friend of Senator Foraker. He explains that the money could be borrowed by business men of the devastated cities in different sized blocks ranging from $1,000 to $50,000.

"This could be made a first lien on the property and no trouble would be encountered in borrowing the money from savings banks on top of the government loans." The government has lent world's fairs millions and has advanced money with 2 per cent interest upon irrigation projects. The loan would effect the rapid rebuilding of San Francisco.

Eugene Cahoon, formerly employed in the mechanical department of the Salt Lake Tribune, is keeping seventeen people in his five-room cottage on Frederick street in San Francisco. A letter from Mr. Cahoon was received yesterday by his brother, J. M. Cahoon of Salt Lake. The letter stated that he had been in the city for three days, but it is probable that he has been there longer. He has enough provisions to supply those under his charge for four days. The letter was written four days ago, but it is probable that they have plenty of food now. Mr. Cahoon says that water is selling in San Francisco for 25 cents a glass.

WIFE SWEARS OUT WARRANT

Stephen Hansen Arrested on Charge of Assault and Battery.

Stephen Hansen, 28 years of age, was arrested yesterday by Police Officers Hilton and Harris on a warrant charging him with assault and battery upon his wife. Mrs. Hansen complained to the police Saturday about the ill-treatment she had received at the hands of her husband and swore out a warrant for his arrest. The case will be heard this afternoon in police court.

TWENTY-TWO MINERS DEAD

Dust Explosion in One of the Colorado Fuel & Iron Mines Forty Miles From Trinidad.

Trinidad, Colo., April 22.—As the result of a dust explosion in a mine of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company, forty miles west of Trinidad, shortly before noon today, twenty-two miners are known to be dead, and one other is missing, with little hope of being found alive. There were forty men in the mine at the time of the explosion. Seventeen miners who were working 200 feet from the entrance escaped uninjured, through another opening. The explosion occurred in rooms 3 and 4, near the main entrance, and was the result of a windy shot which ignited the dust. An order for twenty-two coffins has been received by a local undertaker. The mine was not badly damaged, and work can be resumed in a few days. The mine gives employment to 180 men. Miners from adjacent camps are assisting in the rescue. Superintendent Robert O'Neill left here on a special train at noon and is personally directing the rescue work. Among the dead are James Reid, fire boss. Most of the others are Italians and Japanese.

STRIKERS LEAVE PRICE.

Sheep Owners Driving Their Flocks to Other Points.

(Special to The Herald.) Price, Utah, April 22.—Twenty-five of the striking sheep shearers working for E. B. McDonald at the corral of the Rio Grande Western at Price, who went on strike last Thursday, left here this morning for Emmas Park, where many eastern Utah flocks are being shorn. Others will be shorn at the pens of the Franden sheep which have been fitted up since Thursday below Price, and which will meet the demands of the shearers. McDonald is understood to be trying to get shearers at Green River, and also about Sanpete county, but so far has been unsuccessful. The strike will have the effect of taking considerable trade away from Price as well as the wool buyers who come here in large numbers at shearing time. Under ordinary conditions about seventy thousand sheep are shorn here each spring.

PRINCIPALS TO MEET.

They Will Plan More Relief Work for the Coming Week.

The principals of the public schools will meet at 10 o'clock this morning in the office of Superintendent D. H. Christensen to plan the relief work for the week. Already the school children have contributed about a dollar in bread, and today they will make contributions of nickels and dimes. Mr. Christensen said yesterday that the relief by the school children will be kept up as long as help is needed, and that it will not be permitted to lag.

SPOONER STILL STUDYING HARD

Wisconsin Senator May Attempt to Answer Mr. Bailey's Argument This Week.

NO TIME SET FOR THE VOTE

SENATORS GETTING WEARY OF THE RATE BILL.

Senator LaFollette will continue today (Monday) his address in the United States senate on the railroad rate bill, devoting his especial attention to the subject of the overvaluation of railroads and contending for an amendment to the bill authorizing the interstate commerce commission to determine the correct valuation of railroads as the only proper means of arriving at just and reasonable rates. He will probably conclude during the day.

Spooner May Speak.

There is as yet no definite understanding as to who will follow him, but it is probable that Senator Spooner will do so. Indeed, there has been no definite announcement that any other senators desire to make a general speech on the railroad subject and it is therefore probable that no one else has completed the preparation of a speech. The general opinion is, however, that the debate will continue throughout the week, although many of the senators are becoming restless under the long drawn out controversy and many intimations are heard that an agreement to vote may be suddenly arrived at almost any time after Mr. Spooner shall have had an opportunity to make his reply to Mr. Bailey. In case there should be a lull in the railroad discussion Senator Clapp will take advantage of the opportunity to press the consideration of the Indian annexation bill. The revival of the controversy between Messrs. Tillman and Hopkins is also among the probabilities of the week.

House Programme.

With legislation for the District of Columbia for Monday and abandonment of the session for Tuesday that the house may attend the John Paul Jones burial exercises at Annapolis, the real legislative week of the national house of representatives will not begin until Wednesday. At that time the agricultural bill will be taken up and its consideration continued until it is completed. It is the present intention to limit general debate on the measure until the end of the week. The provision for the distribution of garden seeds which will cause the most talk.

That the bill recently reported from the committee on revision of the laws, containing a codification of criminal law of the United States may receive consideration, appropriation is to be advanced in the near future for night sessions when this bill may be read. The measure is a very long one and its reading will require several hours.

Olympic Games This Week.

The Olympic games at Athens will continue throughout this week and until May 25, thirty-two representatives from the United States will be among the competitors.

In London on April 28 will be held the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of Ellen Terry's connection with the stage. The committee having the celebration in charge includes the leading actor managers, several artists and authors and many other influential men.

The ceremonies in commemoration of Admiral John Paul Jones, whose body was recently brought to Annapolis, will be held on April 24, when the body will be transferred from the temporary tomb in the naval academy grounds to a memorial room in Bancroft hall. The French government has sent a fleet under command of Admiral Campan, to participate in the ceremonies. Addresses will be made by President Roosevelt, M. Jusserand, the French ambassador; Secretary Bonaparte and General Horace Porter.

The national convention of Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Presbyterian church will be held in Harrisburg, Pa., April 24 to 26.

The united convention of the United Confederate Veterans' national reunion convenes in New Orleans April 25.

WOMEN NOT TRUTHFUL

This Statement Has Been Unjustly Made, Because Modest Women Evade Questions Asked By Male Physicians.

Mrs. J.H. Farmer, Frankford, Ind., writes: "I want to thank you for what your medicine has done for me."

"Three years ago I had a serious female trouble. I was under the doctor's care for about three months, and the only time I was not in pain was when under the influence of morphine. The doctor finally said I never would be better, and would be an invalid the rest of my life. I had given up in despair, but one evening I came across one of your advertisements and decided to write you for advice. I did so and commenced to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began to improve at once, and to-day I am a well woman, and I know it is all due to your advice and medicine."

Mrs. J. H. Farmer, of 2809 Elliott Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— I cannot thank you enough for what your advice and medicines have done for me. They have done me more good than all the doctors I ever had."

"For the last eight years I have suffered with female troubles; was very weak; had nervous prostration, and could not do any work; but I am happy to say Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made a different woman of me. I am in perfect health and have gained in weight from 98 to 122 pounds."

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass. She is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant for many years before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women.

If you suffer from any form of trouble peculiar to women, write at once to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will advise you free of charge.

The fact that this great boon, which is extended freely to women by Mrs. Pinkham, is appreciated, the thousands of letters received by her prove. Many such grateful letters as the following are constantly pouring in.

Mrs. C. E. A letter from Miss Welch, who is now in Alameda, says that the James Flood building in San Francisco is standing, despite reports to the contrary, and that it will probably be the only business block left in the city. The fire, she says, passed it.

G. S. Kimball, one of the department superintendents for the Continental in San Francisco, also a former resident of Salt Lake, escaped unharmed. Nothing has been heard from Dr. V. E. McCurdy, medical director of the company.
